No one can give you as much as politicians can promise you in their pre-election campaign. This documentary captures the atmosphere of the campaign meetings during the 2010 Slovak parliamentary elections. A combination of humor, tragedy and pathos, and a mix of all kinds of musical styles and inarticulate verbal expressions. Starring our Slovak politicians.

Jožo/Fero is a Roma, whose addiction has taken everything from him and pushed him and his family onto the edge of society. Marked by difficult fate, he is an eternal child whose best friend is Nemo the dog. Despite his backwardness, he feels mentally superior to other members of his family and is the only one who makes an effort to return to normal life.
