Bathory
A Legend Has
Many Faces

Beauty, warrior, Tyrant, Healer, mother, vampire

Countess Erzsebet Bathory is proclaimed mankind's most prolific murderess, accused of horrific crimes in her quest for eternal youth. Was she a persecuted Renaissance healer whose enthusiasm for science spawned rumours of vampirism, or a lonely widow whose passion for life, love and the arts was turned against her?

You are invited to screen new footage - 25 minutes of selected scenes - from celebrated director Juraj Jakubisko's latest film inspired by this notorious woman.

Starring: Anna Friel as Countess Erzsebet Bathory, Karel Roden as Palatine Gyorgy Thurzo, Vincent Regan as Ferenc Nadasdy, Hans Matheson as Caravaggio, Deana Horvathova as Darvulia and Franco Nero as King Matthias II

Film delivery: Spring 2007
