

How and when apply ?

The applicant must submit the application in the following way:

STEP 1 – ONLINE SUBMISSION

using the official electronic application form (eForm), which may be downloaded from the website of the MEDIA Programme:

http://ec.europa.eu/culture/media/programme/producer/develop/index_en.htm

Applications must be submitted through the eForm. The online submission is considered to be the master copy. Please note that the online application is that part of the submission that will be evaluated by the experts.

Online applications must be submitted using the eForm by 25 November 2011 12:00 CET midday Brussels time (for the 1st deadline) and by 13/04/2012 12:00 CEST midday Brussels time (for the 2nd deadline). It is strongly recommended not to wait until the last minute to apply: the system will not let you submit an application after 12:00 CET/CEST midday Brussels time on the final day of a particular deadline.

Before submitting, the e-mail address of the contact person must be carefully checked because the submission confirmation will be received to this address right after a successful electronic submission.

eForm is from part A to E. The first page of the eForm as well as part A1 should be filled in in order to visualise all the required information which can vary according the requested type of support.

2 ANNEXES must be attached to the eForm (eForm and annexes cannot exceed 5MB):

ANNEX 1. Detailed description of the project(s) in Word or PDF format

For Single Project this should be the synopsis of the project (in English); the note of artistic intent by the author/director and:

If Drama: a treatment of at least 10 pages and at least one dialogue scene or a first draft preliminary script.

If Creative documentary: a treatment of at least 2 pages, comprising a description of the subject, the narrative structure, the visual approach and the creative nature.

If Animation: literary bible or treatment including the description of the subject, the narrative structure, the characters and the visual approach. Key pictures/drawings should also be included.

For Interactive Work this should be the synopsis of the project in English; the note of artistic intent by the author/director; a treatment and a preliminary version of the flow chart (diagram/architecture/map-flow). Treatment must include information concerning interactivity, the visual, sound and graphic elements, the interface concept, the interaction model, the digital technologies and software to be used, the studio work needed in order to complete the project and the key innovative aspects of the project compared to the existing ones.

For Slate Funding/Slate Funding 2nd stage this should comprise artistic material for EACH project of the slate sequentially in a single Word or PDF document (single attachment per project is not possible).

Artistic material for each project should be: the synopsis in English; the note of artistic intent by the author/director AND

If Drama: a full detailed synopsis or a treatment as well as information relating to narrative structure, characters and visual approach. Preliminary scripts may be included taking into account that the total size of the application cannot exceed 5 MB.

If Creative documentary: a treatment comprising a description of the subject, the narrative structure, the visual approach and the creative nature.

If Animation: literary bible or treatment including the description of the subject, the narrative structure.

If scripts and pictures/drawings (in particular for animation projects) are included in your attachment "Detailed description of the project(s)", this may result in a large-sized Word document. This could result in your application exceeding the 5MB limit. If this happens, you can try to reduce the size of the document by converting it to PDF format. If the total size of the application still exceeds 5 MB, please consider pictures/drawings as visual material to be included with the application package.

For all: Significant letters of intent and/or respective agreements (Optional):

Applicants may include letter(s) of intent for co-development or co-production, any letter showing pre-sales or possible distribution and/or respective agreements that he considers useful for the evaluation of the submitted project(s) however taking into account that the total size of the application cannot exceed 5 MB. Expression of interest should be excluded.

ANNEX 2. Detailed budget(s) and sources of finance

The excel template document can be found on the website:

http://ec.europa.eu/culture/media/programme/producer/develop/index_en.htm

The budget form for Slate Funding applications includes a different work sheet for each of the projects (max.5) as well as total slate.

For Single Project/Interactive Work:

MEDIA Programme's funding may be raised up to 60% only for projects intending to promote European cultural diversity. Projects presenting an interest in promoting European cultural diversity are those which bring together different cultural identities national and/or regional within a framework of inter-cultural dialogue among at least two European countries. The project must be centred on the cultural specifics of the countries involved and highlight the values held by their populations.

If you consider that the submitted project presents an interest in this perspective, please justify it in the relevant sheet of the detailed budget.

STEP 2 - APPLICATION PACKAGE

The application package is to be sent by registered mail or private courier no later than 25 November 2011 (for the 1st deadline) and 13 April 2012 (for the 2nd deadline).
