

Prix Europa SPOT

Call for entries

The Foreign Office of the Federal Republic of Germany is calling upon all young talented European filmmakers to enter spots of up to one minute in length for the Prix Europa SPOT "My Europe" competition.

We are looking for spots, advertising Europe and transcending national, cultural and language borders. They should communicate a very personal vision of Europe – of Europe as a place of opportunity and change, as a source of hope, confidence and dynamism.

Participants entering spots should either be training in the media field or have recently completed such training.

The films must be up to one minute long and should rely more on strong images than on long dialogues.

The Prix Europa SPOT will be awarded by a special jury. Deadline for entries is 1 August 2005. Online registration starts on 1 May on www.prix-europa.de.

The award will consist of prize money amounting to €6,000, a certificate, the PRIX EUROPA Trophy and the German Foreign Office's intention to use the prize-winning spot to advertise and promote Europe. The donor and patron of this prize is the Foreign Office of the Federal Republic of Germany.
