

*Looking for the next big European story?
The Fade In Central European Pitch
Forum is the place for you.*

COME AND LISTEN TO THE PITCH

Currently, we are looking for the hottest new screenwriting talent from all around Europe. When we find them and their best projects, we are going to provide the 12 freshest with an opportunity to further develop their scripts with the help of some of the best script doctors available.

Having rewritten their scripts, the 12 selected writers are invited on an all expenses covered trip to the Pécs International Film Festival on 2-3 October 2007. Following a two-day intensive pitch training with the best coaches the crème de la crème are ready to pitch their stories... FOR YOU!

If you are a producer or TV commissioning editor in search of the hottest stories with a wide audience appeal from emerging and fresh talent you have to be there.

If interested, please contact us and we can start organizing your trip to the first ever all-European spec script market.

It is a unique opportunity, the first of its kind, designed to find the best writers and the most prominent producers and facilitate their first contact – in the interest of the whole European film industry.

More information and contact details: www.fadein.eu