WHAT'S SLOVAK IN CANNES 2008

MARKO ŠKOP

*1974 - born in Eastern Slovakia

2006 - Marko's feature film debut as director/producer, OTHER WORLDS, won the Special Jury Mention at the 2006 Karlovy Vary IFF and was the first documentary ever in the festival's history to win the Audience Award

2008 - Artileria's second feature film, the recently finished BLIND LOVES by Juraj Lehotský, was released in Slovakia and on May 17, 2008 launches its international journey in 40th Quinzaine des Réalisateurs / Directors' Fortnight at Cannes 2008

2009 - As both director and producer, Marko is now embarking on a documentary road movie, OSADNÉ-BRUSSELS-OSADNÉ, about a group of local politicians from the Carpathians, who travel to Brussels to meet European MPs and invite them to visit their small Slovak village. The film is made with support of the Talent Dove Award, presented at Dok-Leipzig.
